If the Applicant's current policy is or any previous policies are claims-made and Applicant cancels the policy without purchasing an extended reporting endorsement (tail coverage), there will be no coverage for any claim from any act or omission that took place during that period of claims- made coverage. However, Applicant may apply for a policy with a retroactive date back to the first day of the Applicant's previous claims-made policy.

Prior Acts Coverage is not granted automatically. Therefore, it is important that the Applicant keeps its present coverage current and in force so that the Applicant does not forfeit its right to purchase tail coverage from its present carrier. Even if prior acts coverage is written, it will not cover any claims, conduct, circumstances, occurrences, accidents, or medical incidents likely to give rise to a claim which is known to the Applicant or which should have been known to the Applicant on the date of this application.

If Applicant elects NOT to purchase Prior Acts Coverage, please complete:

An extended reporting period endorsement has been purchased.

If YES, please attach a copy of the endorsement to this application.

An extended reporting period endorsement has not and will not be purchased.

Applicant will not purchase tail coverage (reporting period endorsement) from its current carrier where Applicant is insured under a claims-made policy. Applicant understands that its failure to purchase such coverage from its current carrier will result in an uninsured exposure for any claims which may arise in the future as a result of professional services rendered while insured by its current carrier's policy. Further, Applicant understands and acknowledges that the policy which it is purchasing from Missouri Professionals Mutual will not provide prior acts coverage.

Applicant acknowledges that acceptance into the Company’s insurance program is not a right of every applicant for insurance, and that its application will be evaluated by authorized management personnel and/or the Company’s underwriting committee. Submission of a payment or deposit with this application and provisional receipt of such payment by the Company does not constitute acceptance for insurance nor the creation of an insurance contract. If an applicant is not accepted, any such payment shall be returned to the applicant.

Trout or in his absence the then current Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company as Applicant’s proxy with full power of substitution to represent the undersigned by casting by proxy the vote to which the Applicant is entitled at all general, annual and/or special meetings of the members of the Company to be held between the date Applicant shall become a member and the date thirty-six (36) months from the date of the signature below of a corporate representative with the power to personally bind Applicant, at which time this proxy shall expire unless extended by the undersigned, whenever the undersigned is not personally present, or at any adjournment thereof, as if the undersigned were personally present; and the undersigned hereby ratifies and confirms all that may be done by virtue hereof. This proxy may be revoked by the member delivering a written notice revoking this proxy to the Secretary of the Company or as provided by law, but in the absence of such revocation it shall remain valid during the time herein specified; nor shall failure to use this proxy render it void.

Upon becoming a member of the Company Applicant agrees to accept and will be bound by the Articles of Association and the By-laws of the Company, as both may be amended from time to time, including provisions with respect to the obligation to pay assessments as and when charged. Applicant agrees to the duties and obligations of a member as provided in the above referenced Articles and By-laws, including the obligation to pay assessments as and when charged, and/or levied, during the period for which Applicant’s policy is written, regardless of any intervening termination of said policy. Applicant agrees that any representative appearing on its behalf and appointed by Applicant has authority to do so.
